

Mamie Hanson

Troy State University
Masters Degree in Education (Counseling & Psychology)

Clark-Atlanta University
Bachelor of Arts, English

Currently, Mamie serves as Grants Program Consultant for Career, Technical and Agricultural Education (CTAE) working with CTAE Assessment and the Industry Certification Initiative. Before joining the State Department of Education ten years ago, she worked at the Georgia Institute of Technology as a program coordinator in the College of Computing.

Before going into education administration thirteen years ago, Mamie worked in the corporate sector for 13 years. After graduating from Clark-Atlanta University, she started her corporate career in marketing with Equifax in the mid-eighties. After working for Equifax for nine years, she then joined IBM where she worked four years in telecommunications. After IBM, Mamie decided she wanted a position in which she could assist others.

In her own words, “Working in education is the best thing that could have happened to me and the people I serve.”
